Job Title: Drug Court Coordinator

Department: Charles County Circuit Court

Work Location: La Plata, Maryland

Starting Salary: $43,665 Annually

Job Type: Full-time

Closing Date: October 9, 2015

Job Description Summary: The Drug Court Coordinator is responsible for the day-to-day planning, development, management, monitoring, and coordination of the Charles County Circuit Court's problem-solving court program(s). Successful execution of the essential job functions requires a thorough knowledge of problem-solving court principles, addiction and mental health issues, ancillary service development, grant writing, budget preparation, and project management. The coordinator serves as a liaison with local and state court offices, treatment providers, social service agencies, community stakeholders, etc. Information obtained in the course of the performance of these duties may be confidential or private in nature. This grant-funded position works under the direct supervision of the Court Administrator, with general oversight provided by the Drug Court Judge and/or other Judicial Officers.

Essential Functions: Plan, implement, and monitor the day-to-day activities of the problem-solving court program(s) to ensure compliance with key drug court components and efficient, quality service delivery to the target population. In collaboration with team members, stakeholders, and local organizations, develop and implement a strategic plan that meets the long-term goals and objectives of the community and promotes program sustainability. Compose policies, procedures, goals, objectives, mission statements, etc. for use in informational brochures, presentations, and grants. Conduct grant research, writing, management, and periodic performance reporting. Plan and prepare budgetary estimates and justifications. Coordinate and approve drug court expenditures. Cultivate and maintain cooperative relationships with program and community stakeholders. Coordinate and facilitate interdisciplinary training for drug court team members. Organize and conduct community presentations. Identify service gaps and develop community resources. Collect and analyze data utilized for statistical and narrative reporting. Strategize plans for potential expansion of drug treatment courts or application of drug treatment court approaches to serve other populations. Promote team integrity and monitor quality assurance. Organize and disseminate drug court calendars and pre-court staffing information. Maintain confidential participant files. As an active member and representative of the drug court team, organize, attend, and participate in pre-court staffing, court hearings, conferences, meetings, and committees. Act as a liaison between judicial officers, court personnel, treatment providers, attorneys, members of the drug court team, funding agencies, and community organizations.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities: Ability to work a full-time court schedule of 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, with the flexibility to accommodate deviations from the standard work day. Possess a comprehensive working knowledge of all terminology, applicable laws, ordinances, policies, standards, and regulations pertaining to problem-solving court programs, including addiction, alcoholism, pharmacology, and cultural competency issues. Ability to develop and implement interim and long-term strategic plans for drug court operational efficiency and sustainability. Detail-oriented with excellent organizational abilities including time management, workload prioritization, and record-keeping accuracy in accordance with court policies and/or governmental regulations. Even temperament and strong interpersonal skills to effectively collaborate with community partners and work well with others in a team-oriented environment. Adept at planning, organizing, directing, and coordinating administrative activities for a program or organization. Aptitude for basic mathematical and accounting principles. Ability to identify problems, collect data, establish facts, draw valid conclusions, and create viable solutions based thereon. Effective oral communication skills and the capacity to exercise a high degree of tact, diplomacy, professionalism, and competence in dealing with a wide variety of people. Superior writing skills with the versatility to accurately compose a variety of genres. Ability to simultaneously perform multiple tasks, with minimal supervision, and make independent decisions based on experience, good judgment, and established court policies and procedures. Discretion and sound judgment in working with sensitive information to maintain confidentiality. Proficiency with Microsoft Office, Uniform Case Management System (UCS), and Windows 7, with an aptitude for learning software programs related to various Drug Court functions.

Education and Experience: Requires a Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college or university in criminal justice, public or court administration, social work, psychology, sociology, public health, corrections, or other related field. Three years of progressively more responsible experience in a legal, clinical, or case management setting involving social services, mental health, or addiction services. Job-related experience may include project or program management in the fields of addictions, human/family services, health services, public safety, law enforcement, corrections, or court management. Direct drug court, grant writing, and community outreach experience is preferred. Candidate must have commensurate education, training, and/or experience demonstrating competence in the essential duties, knowledge, skills, and abilities.

The position is grant funded, and continued employment is contingent upon the availability of funds awarded each fiscal year. Excellent benefits including a defined benefit pension plan, deferred compensation, generous leave, and health care programs. The Charles County Employee Pension Plan honors portability of prior eligible Maryland State and local government services in other defined benefit pension plans. Applicants must submit a completed Charles County Government employment application and resume to be considered for this position. Submit application and resume to the Circuit Court for Charles County, Maryland, Attention: Deborah W. Zrioka, Court Administrator, Post Office Box 3060, La Plata, Maryland 20646.
